

Anti-Discrimination Policy

Policy number	1	Version	1.0
Drafted by	Nikki Higgins	Approved by Board on	20/11/2025
Responsible person	Anne Mackay	Scheduled review date	29/10/2027

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Radiance Network South West ("Radiance") endorses diversity, supports equal rights, and does not advocate, support or practice discrimination based on race, religion, age, national origin, language, sex, sexual orientation, or mental or physical handicap, whether covered by applicable legislation or not, except where affirmative action may be required to redress individual or social handicaps of people from disadvantaged groups.
- 1.2 Online statement: Radiance Network South West Inc works hard to ensure the cultural safety of everyone, including, but not limited to, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, people born overseas, people with disability, or different cultural backgrounds, ethnicities, lived experiences, gender identities, sexual orientations or religions. We acknowledge the traditional owners and custodians of the land we live and work on and pay our respects to Elders both past and present. Radiance acknowledges that our work in this area is an ongoing process, and we are dedicated to listening, learning, and adapting as we strive for a more inclusive and supportive environment for all.

2. Purpose

- 2.1 This document sets out Radiance's policy against such discrimination.
- 2.2 The purpose of this document is to outline the governance structures, responsibilities and processes that have been established to give effect to this policy.

3. Policy

- 3.1 Radiance does not advocate, support or practice discrimination based on race, religion, age, national origin, language, sex, sexual orientation, or mental or physical handicap or any other personal attribute protected by law, except where affirmative action may be required to redress individual or social handicaps.
- 3.2 Radiance will make all reasonable accommodations to allow people who experience difficulties in their dealings with the organisation to benefit equally from its work.
 - 3.2.1 We are committed to supporting consumer choice and control by respecting and actively identifying each individual's preferences, including their choices regarding the workers allocated to them, without discrimination.

Anti-Discrimination Procedures

1. Responsibilities

- 1.1 The Board will:
- Regularly review the leadership and commitment given to eliminating discrimination through active promotion of the organisation's Anti-Discrimination Policy.
 - Monitor performance by way of periodic management reports and assurances.
- 1.3 The Chairperson will:
- Ensure that:
 - the organisation's practices and processes incorporate precautions against discrimination in such areas as hiring, client selection, and program delivery;
 - Reasonable accommodations are made to allow diverse groups to access benefits provided by the organisation;
 - Where appropriate, weight is given to the culture and experiences of individuals from disadvantaged groups.
 - Where appropriate, delegate responsibility for compliance to officers with responsibility for particular sections.
 - Oversee the performance of subordinate officers in these matters.
 - Review and report to the Board, as appropriate, on the effectiveness of the management systems established to remove discrimination.
 - Analyse material breaches and identified compliance system weaknesses for systematic trends and ensure that any adverse trends are addressed.
 - Promote a culture of effective policy compliance across the organisation.
- 1.4 All staff and volunteers at all levels will:
- Ensure that they are aware of the organisation's policy against discrimination;
 - Not act in a manner that would be considered to be discriminatory pursuant to this policy or any applicable legislation;
 - Where appropriate, suggest ways in which practices, systems and procedures could be improved so as to reduce the likelihood of discrimination occurring.

2. Processes

- 2.1 The Chairperson will initially review the organisation's procedures in all areas to ensure that these are in accordance with the principles expressed in this policy, and will report to the Board on this matter.
- 2.2 The Chairperson will review any changes to the organisation's procedures in all areas to ensure that these are in accordance with the principles expressed in this policy.
- 2.3 Staff and volunteers will follow these procedures.
